Dear Residents,

Were excited to be settling into the Kirkstall Ward and wanted to take this opportunity to say hello. As a Party, Were starting to make our presence known, and Were really looking forward to becoming part of this Wonderfull Community. Whether you spot us at local events, around the neighbourhood, or just out and about, Were always happy to connect and have a chat.

We truly value the spirit of togetherness, and we are keen to contribute in Possitive Ways. As someone who was Born & Bred in Kirkstall, our local candidate understands the areas unique character and challenges, and is genuinely Passionate about making a difference. They are more than happy to continue working alongside residents, listen to your concerns, and help build a stronger, more connected community.
